

A New Green Space for the Community: DUKE Heights Parkette Now Open

We are pleased to announce the official opening of the DUKE Heights BIA Parkette, located at the northeast corner of Dufferin Street and Finch Avenue West.

This thoughtfully designed 1,650 sqm parkette has transformed a former TTC bus loop into a vibrant, piazza-inspired green space. With the addition of 29 new trees, custom seating, LED lighting, a distinctive boardwalk, and more, the parkette reflects our ongoing commitment to revitalizing public spaces across DUKE Heights.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Dr. Lew Pliamm (Chair, DUKE Heights BIA), Councillor James Pasternak (Ward 6), Councillor Anthony Perruzza (Ward 7), the City of Toronto BIA Office, and the project's stakeholders who joined us at the inauguration on September 25 to mark this important milestone. Held on Sunday, September 28 • Noon - 3 PM

Soupalicious DUKE Heights 2025: A Celebration of Community, Cuisine, and Sustainability

On September 28, 2025, DUKE Heights BIA welcomed residents and families to the Soupalicious DUKE Heights, a Community Harvest Celebration at the Champagne Centre's northwest parking lot—an area that was transformed into a lively festival space for the day. From the warmth and taste of delicious simmering soups to vibrant community engagement, the event delivered a memorable experience for all.

Attendees enjoyed a wide assortment of hearty soups brought by BIA vendors and farmers from outside our BIA, along with bread and fresh corn, with live musical performances, face painting, and arts & crafts providing entertainment for all ages. To kick off the fall spirit, the first 100 families received complimentary pumpkins, adding to the festive mood. [\[...\]](#) connection. The contest saw vibrant participation from photographers and visual storytellers eager to showcase the dynamic spirit of the DUKE Heights BIA.

Submissions poured in from across the area, with each photo reflecting a unique angle of perspective and lifestyle in DUKE Heights. From urban landscapes to community moments, the images captured both the familiar and the unexpected. The BIA team carefully reviewed and shortlisted the top 30 entries, which were then opened to the public for voting via our official Facebook page.

The contest drew hundreds of thoughtful and artistic submissions, highlighting the immense creativity within our community. We were truly inspired by the effort and passion behind each image, and we thank every participant for their contribution.

As we congratulate this year's talented winners, we also take a moment to recognize all those who helped make the contest a success—from the photographers behind the lens to the community members who voted and engaged online.

CasaVive : A Holistic Health Studio

Health and Wellness Reimagined: How CasaVive is Changing the Way We Care for Ourselves

In a world overflowing with wellness trends, podcasts, and TikToks, finding a balanced path to better health can feel like trying to tune into a single clear note in a sea of noise. Most people know the basics—exercise, eat well, manage stress—but bringing those pieces together in real life is another story. That's where CasaVive comes in.

CasaVive is a holistic health studio that's reimagining what it means to take care of your body and mind. Founded by Jacqueline, a Personal Trainer and Nutrition Counselor, and Yasmine, a Registered Kinesiologist and Certified Athletic Therapist, CasaVive was born from experience—and frustration. The two met while working in gyms across the GTA, where they saw clients struggle to connect the dots between fitness, nutrition, and overall wellness. [...]
